CORRUPTIO

This is the Major that now is atoning,
Who paid for the Letter of nobody's owning,
By means of the Captain for Liberty sighing,
Committed to Newgate for wilfully Lying;
To succour the Man whose evidence proved,
The Lady loved him, and the Lady he loved;
That brought the Duke into such disgrace,
Who worship'd the Angel of Gloucester-Place,
That kept the Lad with the Cherubim face,
Transform'd to a Captain all cover'd with Lace,
That carried the Note, the magical Note, which nobody dictated, nobody wrote.

This is the brave Commander of Men,
Who raised an Army of three score and ten,
That smiled at the Major who now is atoning,
The price of the Letter of nobody's owning,
By means of the Captain for Liberty sighing,
Committed to Newgate for wilfully Lying,
To succour the Man, whose evidence proved,
The Lady loved him, and the Lady he loved;

This is the General claver and bold,
Whose story was good 'till another was told,
Who losing his memory, strange for to tell,
Was sent to regain it, to *Newman's Hotel;
That envied the brave Commander of Men,
Who raised an Army of three score and ten,
That smiled at the Major who now is atoning,

* Newgate, so called by the Prisoner, Mr. Newman being the Keeper.

This is the Doctor, O! praying for grace,
In hopes of a mitre to strengthen his Case,
With a bribe of Five Thousand presenting his face,
To the Clarke of preferment of Gloucester-Place;
Who flatter'd the General claver and bold,
Whose story was good 'till another was told,
